

CERTIFIED FINANCE SPECIALIST

OVERVIEW

CFS certification gives you the opportunity to develop the analytical tools and skills required for the success in your business and finance career. This is accredited on the UK's national qualifications framework and benchmarked against EQF. With the CFS designation after your name, you will be able to stand out from the crowd. To achieve the CFS designation, you need to pass a computer-based MCQ exam.

Entry Requirements:

If you have a minimum one year of working experience at any level of finance, accounting or related role, then you are eligible to sit for the CFS exam. One year experience is the only eligibility requirement. We will require you to provide your experience details (such as name and address of your current/previous organization) at the time of your exam registration.
